Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are pleased and honored to recognize Missourians who have witnessed dramatic changes in America during their sojourn on this most precious Earth; and

Whereas, the members now find it altogether fitting and proper to pause in their course of the diverse daily activities to recognize Daisy Hansford McAlpin, of Higginsville, Missouri, who will observe the occasion of her one hundred second birthday on June 18, 2008; and

Whereas, on June 18, 1906, in Marble Fall, Arkansas, God brought a special gift to this great nation with the birth of an adorable infant by the name of Daisy, who would put a twinkle in people's eyes and fill their hearts with love and joy; and

Whereas, while celebrating her birthday, Daisy McAlpin will have the opportunity to reminisce about some of the significant events in her life such as growing up in the company of one brother, attending Hendrix College, being married to James R. McAlpin for fifty years, and giving birth to their two offspring; and

Whereas, God has blessed Daisy McAlpin with the love and affection of a wonderful family whose members include two children, four grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren; and

Whereas, a devoted wife, loving mother, and exemplary homemaker, Daisy McAlpin further distinguished herself by working at Unity School of Christianity; and

Whereas, at the respectable age of 102, Daisy McAlpin is extremely grateful for the countless blessings she has received throughout the course of her long and eventful life:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our most sincere happy birthday wishes to Daisy McAlpin the auspicious occasion of her one hundred second birthday; and
